Los Angeles, California (October 2017) On Saturday October 28th at the NEW Intercontinental Hotel, Union Rescue Mission(URM) will be hosting a benefit aimed at helping people experiencing homelessness in the City of Angels. We are excited to once again welcome Alfonso Ribiero as our Master of Ceremonies which begs the question “will he do the Carlton again to help raise the temperature on the donation thermometer?” CEO Andy Bales says, “Please join the URM team as we DARE TO DREAM of the day when not even one precious person is on the streets of Los Angeles”

About URM

URM is the largest mission of its kind in America — bringing help and hope to men, women, and children experiencing homelessness in Los Angeles. URM provides comprehensive emergency and long-term recovery services to our guests to help them escape the dangerous streets of Skid Row and transition from homelessness to independent living.

About URM's Hope Gardens Family Center(HGFC)

Nestled in the foothills of the Angeles National Forest, HGFC offers a peaceful setting and transitional living to moms, children, a number of single women and permanent supportive housing to senior women. In addition to food and shelter, long-term rehabilitation programs, job training, counseling, training and encouragement, HGFC offers the real help women need to escape homelessness forever.
